After waiting until this time. Saturday morning, May 3, we have failed to hear anything from the executive committee of the United Mine Workers of America. This committee has come to the conclusion to make them. The engineers, firemen and pumprunners employed at the Storrs No. 1 and 2 and Johnson mines at Dickson City are members of Local unions Nos. 1010, 1229 and 1644, repectively. A joint meeting of these locals was held in the borough building on Saturday afternoon to consider the order calling out the men above mentioned.

CHANGES THAT ARE PROPOSED

REV. DR. M'LEOD DISCUSSED THEM YESTERDAY.

Why It Has Been Deemed Advisable to Make Certain Changes in the Presbyterian Confession of Faith. Matters Reported at the Recent General Assembly and Passed Upon by It Will Be Considered by the Presbyteries During the Year. Those Who Will Have a Vote.

In the First Presbyterian church yesterday morning, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., delivered a discourse on the "Proposed Revision of the Presbyterian Confession of Faith." He said:

You are all aware that the recent general assembly of our church took upon itself a grave responsibility by preparing several amendments to the constitutio of our beloved church; and by issuing "A Brief Statement of the Reformed Faith," for the benefit of our church members This action is so important that I em-brace the earliest opportunity of inviting your attention to it.

The action of the assembly was in fact the work of a large committee of ministers and ruling elders, which was appointed a year ago. This committee of twenty-one members, was given specific instructions, and to their credit it should be said that they carried out their instructions with remarkable fidelity. It is also significant, and perhaps it is cause for congratulation, that this large commit-tee came to a unanimous agreement. It is furthermore significant, that the report of this committee was adopted by the almost unanimous vote of the general as-sembly.

The committee was enjoined by the general assembly of 1901, that—in suggesting changes in our "Confession of Faith" and in preparing a brief statement of our church doctrines for the use of the members of our church-it must "in no way impair the integrity of the system of doctrine set forth in our confession and taught in the Holy Scriptures."

The brief statement of doctrine, adopt ed by the general assembly, is not to be part of the constitution of our church. It was prepared and intended only for the information of those members of our church who are not trained theologians; and, also, in order that others, outside the Presbyterian church, may know what our church believes teaching various specified doctrines. It is a document intended for popular use, and therefore it is, in large measure, free from ambiguity and from technical words or phrases.

GOD'S ETERNAL DECREE. The third chapter of our Confession of Faith treats "of God's Eternal Decree," and its critics and the critics of our church have brought against this chapter the charge of fatalism, or of necessi-tarianism which, if true, destroys the doctrine of free-will and abolishes the idea and the fact of human responsibility. The Presbyterian church has always dis-claimed and denied the truth of this charge, and it is now proposed to state our belief so clearly that no honest critic will ever again misrepresent our doctrine.
It is proposed to embody in a "Declaratory Statement," our interpretation of that part of the third chapter of our confession which has been so widely misunderstood and misrepresented. To such an inter-pretation, if it be correct, there can be no valid objection. On the contrary it should, be heartily welcomed and approved by all the officers and members of our

The third section of the tenth chapter of our Confession which says that "elect in-fants, dying in infancy, are regenerated by Christ through has been the occasion of much discussion and unwarranted inferences have been drawn from it, which we specifically and emphatically deny. The proposed "Dec-laratory Statement" puts the belief of our church touching the salvation of all infants dying in infancy beyond all further controversy. It says: "With reference to chapter X, section 3, of the Confession of Faith, that it is not to be regarded as teaching that any dying in in-fancy are lost. We believe that all dying in infancy are included in the elec-tion of grace and are regenerated and saved by Christ through the Spirit who works when and where and how He

Chapter XVI treats of good works done by the unregenerate. It is a subject which has also been the occasion of much discussion. It is now proposed to modify the language of the old Confession as follows:

LANGUAGE MODIFIED. Overture No. 5 .- Shall section 7, chapter XVI, of the Confession of Faith be changed so as to read:

VII. Works done by unregenerate men, lthough for the matter of them they may be things which God commands, and in mselves praiseworthy and useful, and although the neglect of such things is sinful and displeasing to God; yet because they proceed not from a heart purified by faith, nor are done in a right manner, acording to His Word, nor to a right endthe glory of God; they come short of what God requires, and do not make any man to receive the grace of God.

The twenty-second chapter of the Confession says that "It is a sin to refuse an oath touching anything that is good and just, being imposed by lawful authority." It is proposed to strike out this Chapter XXV deals with the pope of Rome who claims to be the head of the church. It characterizes him not only as "Anti-Christ," Lut, also, as "the man of sin, and son of perdition." This language is severe, and many in our church regard it as unwarranted. It is therefore proposed to cmit any mention of the pope of Rome, and to make the broad and com-prehensive statement that no person has prehensive statement that no person has any right to claim to be the vicar of Christ. This is the proposed substitute:

Overture No. 7.—Shall the following section be substituted for section 6, chapter XXV, of the Confession of Faith, viz?

VI. The Lord Jesus Christ is the only head of the church, and the claim of any man to be the vicar of Christ and the head of the church is unserintural withhead of the church, is unscriptural, with-out warrant in fact, and is a usurpation dishonoring to the Lord Jesus Christ. It is further proposed to add to our Con-fession two new chapters—one concerning the Holy Spirit, and another concerning the Love of God and Christian missions.

WILL BE DISCUSSED. These chapters have been prepared with care, and they will come up before all our Presbyteries for discussion during the present ecclesiastical year. There are in our church 23 Presbyteries and 7,532 ministers. All these ministers and an equal number of ruling elders, will have a right to discuss and vote upon all the subjects proposed by the assembly, and if two-thirds of all our Presbyteries give their approval, the proposed amendment will become a part of the constitution of our church, and will be embodied in our Conssion of Faith.

These are important matters, and it is the duty of all our ministers and elders, and church members to pray that God may bestow upon those who are to de-cide these questions all needed wisdom and grace, so that God's truth may be conserved, and that His kingdom and glory may be promoted.
